

Open Governments, Secret Canada: Hiding Information Other Countries Share

Table of Contents

Introduction

Australia: Outsourcing Key Governance Roles to Corporate Tech Actors

Denmark: Corruption in Procurement Systems

Estonia: Access to Justice with Digital Courts

Finland: Tracking Lobbyists

Iceland: Protecting Whistleblowers and Journalists

Ireland: Using Transparency to Unlock Economic Growth

Netherlands: Putting an End to Disappearing Text Messages after Nokiagate

New Zealand: Embracing Proactive Disclosure or an Open-by-default approach

Norway: Leading the Way in Declassification --

Singapore: Driving Growth with Open Data --

Sweden: Negotiating Privacy and Transparency

Uruguay: Building A High-Integrity Public Service --

Venice Commission – Effective Government Watchdogs

Conclusion